

'Reclaiming Narratives' Pitches for Black History Month 2024

Culture, Health and Wellbeing Alliance (CHWA) and London Arts and Health (LAH) are pleased to be collaborating on a paid callout for ethnically diverse creative health artists/practitioners for Black History Month 2024. The theme for this year is 'Reclaiming Narratives,' and we are specifically looking for work that responds to this, and are inviting people to interpret this theme in a way that speaks to them. Selected pieces will be featured through the CHWA bulletin and LAH newsletter, website and social media channels throughout October 2024. Each selected piece will receive a fee of £150

Prior to completing this form, please read or listen to the full call out brief on our website.

Please note we invite people who have personal or professional experience in relation to this theme. Please respect this held space and do not apply if you don't fit this criteria.

Please get in touch if we can support you in the process of applying or if you have any other questions at fiona@culturehealthandwellbeing.org.uk (we aim to get back to you within a week of sending an email).
